COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course introduces candidates to methods of social studies instruction. An emphasis is placed on understanding diverse perspectives and interpretations of events in history. This course helps candidates further develop the skills to integrate multiple content areas. In this course, candidates investigate various teaching strategies to motivate children, explore what it means to critically evaluate sources, to interpret events, and to promote civic behavior and discourse. Course content includes concepts relating to: 1) civics, 2) economics, 3) geography, 4) history (emphasizing Pacific Northwest history and Since Time Immemorial curriculum). Candidates will use self-reflection to analyze and inform their own social studies instructional practices. This course includes components of state requirements for certification (edTPA, TPEP, etc.).

COURSE RESOURCES

Required and recommended resources to complete coursework and assignments are found on the course Reading List. The reading list can be found under Course Information in Blackboard as well as from the library homepage.

Note: Required resources that must be purchased by the student are tagged “Purchase from a vendor of your choosing.” Required resources with a direct link, “Available through CityU Library”, are available at no cost to students.

Students in Canada will see required resources they need to purchase tagged “Purchase from the Canadian Bookstore.” Students outside the U.S. and Canada should contact their advisor or textbook coordinator for additional information.

COURSE OUTCOMES

In this course, learners:

- Identify and develop instructional best practices in Social Studies.
- Identify the four major areas of Social Studies.
- Implement state standards and Since Time Immemorial curriculum into a Social Studies learning segment.

OVERVIEW OF COURSE GRADING

The grades earned for the course will be derived using City University of Seattle’s decimal grading system, based on the following:

Overview of Required Assignments	% of Final Grade
Social Studies Learning Segment	40%
Facilitating Effective Social Studies Discourse	40%
Participation, Engagement, and Essential Dispositions	20%
TOTAL	100%

SPECIFICS OF COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

The instructor will provide grading rubrics with more detail as to how this assignment will be graded.

Social Studies Learning Segment

Candidate will develop a learning segment on one or more Social Studies areas aligned to state Social Studies standards that incorporate the Since Time Immemorial curriculum. Candidate will include aligned formative and summative assessments along with varied instructional practices and activities that promote engagement and critical thinking.

Components	% of Grade
Aligned Assessments	25%
Instructional Plans	25%
State Standards and Learning Targets	25%
Since Time Immemorial Curriculum Integration	25%
TOTAL	100%

Facilitating Effective Social Studies Discourse

An important part of effective social studies instruction is the facilitation of equitable social studies discourse that reflects multiple perspectives on topics. For this assignment, candidates will create a plan to effectively facilitate student discourse pertaining to a topic, issue, conflict, or event (subject to instructor approval), that aligns with the WA state social studies standards for a grade level the candidate plans to teach. The candidate will first unpack the topic in order to better understand multiple perspectives (common interpretations in texts, personal, common). Then, the candidate will select methods and instructional strategies to address six student needs in effective social studies discourse: 1) eliciting students’ ideas, 2) recognizing biases and perspectives, 3) understanding differing perspectives, 4) setting boundaries and redirecting, 5) engaging students as collaborative sense makers, and 6) promoting active listening. The candidate will apply those instructional strategies by giving specific implementation details for that strategy/method in the context of the selected topic, issue, conflict, or event. Candidate will reflect on the theoretical and personal benefits and challenges to implementing the selected strategies.

Components	% of Grade
Topic/Issue/Conflict/Event Analysis	30%
Instructional Strategies/Methods	30%
Reflection	40%
TOTAL	100%

Participation, Engagement, and Essential Dispositions

Candidates should participate and engage in all classwork, including required assignments, class discussions, activities, and instructor-determined assignments. Candidates should work to meet essential dispositions criteria not only in the field, but also in their coursework, whether online or in person.

Components	% of Grade
Engagement	50%
Essential Dispositions	50%
TOTAL	100%

PARTICIPATION

Professional Writing

Assignments require error-free writing that uses standard English conventions and logical flow of organization to address topics clearly, completely, and concisely. CityU requires the use of APA style.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES

You are responsible for understanding and adhering to all of City University of Seattle's academic policies. The most current versions of these policies can be found in the University Catalog that is linked from the CityU Web site.

Antidiscrimination

City University of Seattle and its staff and faculty are committed to supporting our students. We value equity, diversity, and inclusion as a way of life as well as the educational opportunities it provides. City U will not tolerate any form of discrimination based on race, color, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identification, socioeconomic status, or religious values. If you have experienced any discrimination based on any of the above, we encourage you to report this to the University. Please report this to your instructor. If you do not feel safe reporting this to your instructor, please report to the Provost or to the Vice President of Student Affairs.

Non-Discrimination & Prohibition of Sexual Misconduct

City University of Seattle adheres to all federal, state, and local civil rights laws prohibiting discrimination in employment and education. The University is committed to ensuring that the education environment is bounded by standards of mutual respect and safety and is free from discriminatory practices.

In the U.S., the University is required by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 to ensure that all of its education programs and activities do not discriminate on the basis of sex/gender. Sex include sex, sex stereotypes, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, and pregnancy or parenting status. Sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating and domestic violence, and stalking are forms of sex discrimination, which are prohibited under Title IX and by City University of Seattle policy. City University of Seattle also prohibits retaliation against any person opposing discrimination or participating in any discrimination investigation or complaint process internal or external to the institution. Questions regarding Title IX, including its application and/or concerns about noncompliance, should be directed to the Title IX Coordinator. For a complete copy of the policy or for more information, visit <https://my.cityu.edu/titleix> or contact the Title IX Coordinator.

In Canada, in compliance with the British Columbia Human Rights Code, the Alberta Human Rights Act, WorksafeBC, and the Workers' Compensation Board of Alberta, the University believes that its environment should at all times be supportive and respectful of the dignity and self-esteem of individuals. Discrimination, harassment and bullying conduct, whether through person to person behaviour or via electronic communications such as email or social media is not acceptable and will not be tolerated. As an educational institution, it is our responsibility to cultivate an environment of excellence, equity, mutual respect and to recognize the value and potential of every individual. The University will take all necessary steps to meet or exceed the requirements of the law to prevent discrimination, harassment and bullying. The Respectful Workplace Policy for the prevention of discrimination, harassment and bullying policy and procedure can be found at <https://www.cityu.edu/discover-cityu/about-cityu/> under the Policies section or at <https://www.cityuniversity.ca/about/>.

Religious Accommodations

City University of Seattle has a policy for accommodation of student absences or significant hardship due to reasons of faith or conscience, or for organized religious activities. The University's policy, including more information about how to request an accommodation, is available in the University Catalog and on the my.cityu.edu student portal. Accommodations must be requested by the 20% mark of this course (e.g. day 14 of a ten-week course, day 7 of a 5-week course) using the Religious Accommodations Request Form found on the student dashboard in the my.cityu.edu student portal.

Academic Integrity

Academic integrity in students requires the pursuit of scholarly activity that is free from fraud, deception and unauthorized collaboration with other individuals. Students are responsible for understanding CityU's policy on academic integrity and adhering to its standards in meeting all course requirements. A complete copy of this policy can be found in the University Catalog in the section titled Academic Integrity Policy under Student Rights & Responsibilities.

Attendance

Students taking courses in any format at the University are expected to be diligent in their studies and to attend class regularly. Regular class attendance is important in achieving learning outcomes in the course and may be a valid consideration in determining the final grade. For classes where a physical presence is required, a student has attended if they are present at any time during the class session. For online classes, a student has attended if they have posted or submitted an assignment. A complete copy of this policy can be found in the University Catalog in the section titled Attendance under Student Rights & Responsibilities.

Final Assignments Due Date

Final assignments for each class at CityU must be due on or before the final date of the course as indicated in the university's course information system. Due dates that extend beyond the final date of the course may negatively impact tuition funding for students.

SUPPORT SERVICES

Disability Services Accommodations Statement

Students with documented disability who wish to request academic accommodations are encouraged to contact Disability Support Services to discuss accommodation requests and eligibility requirements. Please contact Disability Support Services at disability@cityu.edu or 206.2369.4752 or visit the Disability Support Services page in the my.cityu.edu portal. Confidentiality will be observed in all inquiries. Once approved, information about academic accommodations will be shared with your course instructors.

Library Services

CityU librarians are available to help students find the resources and information they need to succeed in this course. Contact a CityU librarian through the Ask a Librarian service, or access library resources and services online, 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Smarthinking Tutoring

CityU students have 24/7 access to free online tutoring offered through Smarthinking, including writing support, from certified tutors. Contact CityU's Student Support Center at mycityusupport@cityu.edu to request a username and password.
