COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course provides teacher candidates an opportunity to develop and enhance teaching practices to support, encourage, and engage linguistically diverse students. Candidates will explore ways students' in school and out-of-school experiences should be valued and connected to new learning through an asset-based approach to planning and instruction. The course will also help candidates critically consider the ways our current assessment system could be more culturally responsive for our ELL students and their families.

COURSE RESOURCES

Required and recommended resources to complete coursework and assignments are found on the course Reading List. The reading list can be found under Course Information in Blackboard as well as from the library homepage.

Note: Required resources that must be purchased by the student are tagged "Purchase from a vendor of your choosing." Required resources with a direct link, "Available through CityU Library", are available at no cost to students.

Students in Canada will see required resources they need to purchase tagged "Purchase from the Canadian Bookstore." Students outside the U.S. and Canada should contact their advisor or textbook coordinator for additional information.

COURSE OUTCOMES

In this course, learners:

- Develop an affirming attitude toward students from linguistically diverse backgrounds.
- Understand research-based principles that build ELL-responsive learning environments.
- Examine instruction from multiple perspectives, creating an inclusive classroom environment.
- Hold high expectations for all students and help all students learn
- Use diverse resources to plan and structure engaging learning opportunities for ELLs, adapting instruction and evaluating learning using multiple sources of evidence.
- Collaborate with colleagues, parents and administrators to ensure student success.
- Advocate for the needs of ELL students and their families within the school.

Plan of Action for Advocacy	30%
Participation, Engagement, and Essential Dispositions	20%
TOTAL	100%

SPECIFICS OF COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

The instructor will provide grading rubrics that will provide more detail as to how this assignment will be graded.

Principles for Building an ELL-Responsive Learning Environment

In this paper, you will explore research-based principles for building an ELL-responsive learning environment. Questions that may guide your thinking include, but are not limited to:

- What are the goals of schooling in general for ELLs?
- What roles to language and culture play in teaching, in learning and in the assessment of learning?
- How do we measure the successfulness of schooling for ELLs?
- What factors besides the quality of classroom instruction impact the education of ELLs? How?
- What is the importance of parental and community involvement in the education of ELLs?

Components	% of Grade
Schoolwide Principles	30%
Effective Teaching, Learning & Assessment	30%
Community Involvement	30%
Research-Based Support	10%
TOTAL	100%

Focus on Instruction: Lesson Plan Analysis

In this assignment candidates will critique and revise a single day/period lesson plan so that it aligns with effecting teaching and learning for ELLs. Candidates may chose a sample lesson plan provided by the course instructor, or provide their own lesson plan from a district-approved curriculum (with instructors prior approval). The revised lesson plan should include:

- strategies for increasing high expectations for ELLs oral language development and vocabulary
- building adaptations that rely on specific populations’ funds of knowledge and culture
- meaningful formative assessment and next steps for teaching based on this data

Components	% of Grade
Strategies	20%
Oral Language & Vocabulary Development	20%
Use of Funds of Knowledge (FOK), Cultural Adaptations & Specific Population info	20%
Assessment & Data Collection	20%
Next Steps	20%
TOTAL	100%

Advocacy: Plan of Action

Think of the most prominent challenges and problems ELLs face in your school, or at a school you have observed recently. You will create a plan of advocacy to present to the leadership team at your school or the board of a school district. The plan should clearly identify the problem and describe why it is important. Second, describe the types of advocacy activities that could be utilized and third, create a follow-up plan of action.

Components	% of Grade
Plan of Advocacy	40%
Advocacy Activities	30%
Follow-Up Plan	20%
Research-Based Support	10%
TOTAL	100%

Late Assignments

LATE ASSIGNMENT

Participation

Professional Writing

Assignments require error-free writing that uses standard English conventions and logical flow of organization to address topics clearly, completely, and concisely. CityU requires the use of APA style.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES

You are responsible for understanding and adhering to all of City University of Seattle's academic policies. The most current versions of these policies can be found in the University Catalog that is linked from the CityU Web site.

Antidiscrimination

City University of Seattle and its staff and faculty are committed to supporting our students. We value equity, diversity, and inclusion as a way of life as well as the educational opportunities it provides. City U will not tolerate any form of discrimination based on race, color, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identification, socioeconomic status, or religious values. If you have experienced any discrimination based on any of the above, we encourage you to report this to the University. Please report this to your instructor. If you do not feel safe reporting this to your instructor, please report to Dr. Scott Carnz, Provost or to the Vice President of Student Affairs, Melissa Mecham.

Non-Discrimination & Prohibition of Sexual Misconduct

City University of Seattle adheres to all federal, state, and local civil rights laws prohibiting discrimination in employment and education. The University is committed to ensuring that the education environment is bounded by standards of mutual respect and safety and is free from discriminatory practices.

In the U.S., the University is required by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 to ensure that all of its education programs and activities do not discriminate on the basis of sex/gender. Sex include sex, sex stereotypes, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, and pregnancy or parenting status. Sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating and domestic violence, and stalking are forms of sex discrimination, which are prohibited under Title IX and by City University of Seattle policy. City University of Seattle also prohibits retaliation against any person opposing discrimination or participating in any discrimination investigation or complaint process internal or external to the institution. Questions regarding Title IX, including its application and/or concerns about noncompliance, should be directed to the Title IX Coordinator. For a complete copy of the policy or for more information, visit <https://my.cityu.edu/titleix> or contact the Title IX Coordinator.

In Canada, in compliance with the British Columbia Human Rights Code, the Alberta Human Rights Act, WorksafeBC, and the Workers' Compensation Board of Alberta, the University believes that its environment should at all times be supportive and respectful of the dignity and self-esteem of individuals. Discrimination, harassment and bullying conduct, whether through person to person behaviour or via electronic communications such as email or social media is not acceptable and will not be tolerated. As an educational institution, it is our responsibility to cultivate an environment of excellence, equity, mutual respect and to recognize the value and potential of every individual. The University will take all necessary steps to meet or exceed the requirements of the law to prevent discrimination, harassment and bullying. The Respectful Workplace Policy for the prevention of discrimination, harassment and bullying policy and procedure can be found at <https://www.cityu.edu/discover-cityu/about-cityu/> under the Policies section or at <https://www.cityuniversity.ca/about/>.

Religious Accommodations

City University of Seattle has a policy for accommodation of student absences or significant hardship due to reasons of faith or conscience, or for organized religious activities. The University's policy, including more information about how to request an accommodation, is available in the University Catalog and on the my.cityu.edu student portal. Accommodations must be requested by the 20% mark of this course (e.g. day 14 of a ten-week course, day 7 of a 5-week course) using the Religious Accommodations Request Form found on the student dashboard in the my.cityu.edu student portal.

Academic Integrity

Academic integrity in students requires the pursuit of scholarly activity that is free from fraud, deception and unauthorized collaboration with other individuals. Students are responsible for understanding CityU's policy on academic integrity and adhering to its standards in meeting all course requirements. A complete copy of this policy can be found in the University Catalog in the section titled Academic Integrity Policy under Student Rights & Responsibilities.

Attendance

Students taking courses in any format at the University are expected to be diligent in their studies and to attend class regularly. Regular class attendance is important in achieving learning outcomes in the course and may be a valid consideration in determining the final grade. For classes where a physical presence is required, a student has attended if they are present at any time during the class session. For online classes, a student has attended if they have posted or submitted an assignment. A complete copy of this policy can be found in the University Catalog in the section titled Attendance under Student Rights & Responsibilities.

Final Assignments Due Date

Final assignments for each class at CityU must be due on or before the final date of the course as indicated in the university's course information system. Due dates that extend beyond the final date of the course may negatively impact tuition funding for students.

SUPPORT SERVICES

Disability Services Accommodations Statement

Students with documented disability who wish to request academic accommodations are encouraged to contact Disability Support Services to discuss accommodation requests and eligibility requirements. Please contact Disability Support Services at disability@cityu.edu or 206.2369.4752 or visit the Disability Support Services page in the my.cityu.edu portal. Confidentiality will be observed in all inquiries. Once approved, information about academic accommodations will be shared with your course instructors.

Library Services

CityU librarians are available to help students find the resources and information they need to succeed in this course. Contact a CityU librarian through the Ask a Librarian service, or access library resources and services online, 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Smarthinking Tutoring

CityU students have 24/7 access to free online tutoring offered through Smarthinking, including writing support, from certified tutors. Contact CityU's Student Support Center at mycityusupport@cityu.edu to request a username and password.
